STAT

Your recent letter to General Vernon A. Walters, Deputy Director of Central Intelligence, was referred to this office for reply.

If you will complete and return one of the enclosed application forms, we will review your qualifications in light of our personnel needs and advise you further. In addition, as we will need a record of your clerical skills, we ask that you take the enclosed Letter of Introduction to the nearest Office of the State Employment Service so that you can be given the appropriate tests. In the event interest is expressed in your qualifications, we will make arrangements for an interview at a later date.

Thank you for your interest in the Agency.

Sincerely,
